The Show

AVAIA is a mystical journey into the abyss of time where ancient mysteries of the past engage the innovations of the future. Above all, it is a celebration of life and of man's love for horses. The infinitely creative mix of artistry, acrobatics and dance will astonish and spark the imagination. The artists not only defy the laws of gravity, they unveil the secret wisdom of the future and of times past.

- The name Avaia is derived from the Sanskrit and Latin languages meaning - a source of rejoicing, a source of celebration.
- The cast of Avaia includes 19 of the world's most beautiful performing horses including a rare blue-eyed albino stallion and some of the most ancient breeds.

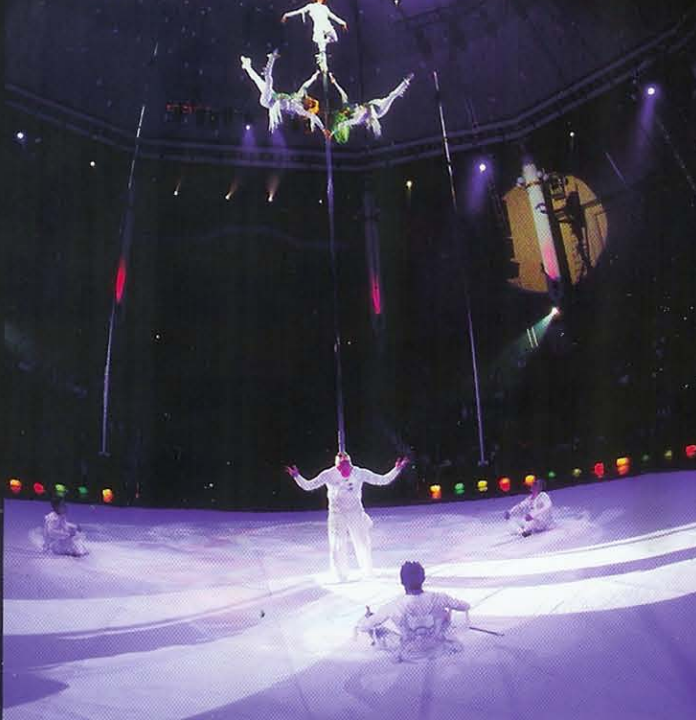

Experience a Revolution in Theatrical Entertainment.

- Already declared an instant classic, Avaia is one of the most anticipated and powerful productions to date. It will bring a vivid mosaic of the world's best acrobatic performers with the world's greatest theatrical equestrians.
- The show will consist of stables of the world's greatest performing horses and a cast of 50 of the greatest cirque stars from around the globe. This one of a kind show is coming to North America for the first time.

The Creators

Creator Mairbek Kantemirov

Since 1994 Mairbek Kantemirov has been the artistic director of the Ali-Bek troupe, the first Russian Circus group of its kind who performed traditional stunts on horse. In 1997, recognized as an honoured artist of Russia and North Ossetia, he created his own theatrical attraction called "Scythians". It quickly became an incredibly successful production in Russia. He is a recipient of the National Academy Award and winner of the 20th International Circus Festival in Rome.

Oleg Kantemirov, Artistic Director

Oleg is a third-generation member of the Kantemirov family circus dynasty and a world-renowned circus performer. He has over 25 years of experience having performed with the Moscow Circus and with Cirque du Soleil in many of its productions including Facination, Saltimbanco and Alegria.
